

Human rights of the school Zielitz

Environment

Project of the 5th class in the Biosphere Reserve Middle Elbe:

- Enlightenment to the natural wonder Elbe in the meadows of the Wolmirstedter Küchenhorn
- Realization of a knowledge course on the subjects master Bockert, Biber, plants in the forest and habitat Hecke

Workthems: -Waste separation
-Working group aquarium
-Laying a dry wall
-Biological exhibition
-Leisure activities
-Building a herb worm

Intercultural Learning

Indian Adventure

- Focus:
- Tradition
- Customs of indian population

Life of an American Slave

- Depicting the life of the black africans us slaves in the USA

Development of interest and respect for different cultures and living beings

Independent reflection of cultural plurism, tradition and future perspectives

Action and development of respect, tolerance and appreciation

Intercultural Learning

Development of interest and respect for different cultures and living beings

Independent reflection of cultural pluralism, tradition and future perspectives

Action and development of respect, tolerance and appreciation

Global Learning

Language trip of the 9th class to England

7th class: Project “Indian Adventure“

Class 9: Project “From cultural conflict to Global Agreement“ in the subjects English, German, Geographie, Social Science, History

Class 7-10: Projects in the English lesson

Help for Asia

- a joint project of the German Foundation World Population and the organization "Geo protects the rain forest" in Nepal is supported with 1100, - DM

Help for Europe

- Formation of a human chain with the participation of kindergartens and a school for the mentally handicapped
- Participation of the primary school, the local companies and local politicians at the project provided a total of 3680 DM

Help for Africa

- Support for the Unicef Community action and the South Sudan national voices Geographiestunden of the 8th class gave offense Project of the Unesco groups Cakes and flea markets are organized
- Support for „Christoffel Mission for Blind“
- Action brought 900-mark donation for Unicef

Peace and human rights education

Help for the victims of flood in Asia by the participation in the action „schools help schools“

Red Nose Day

- Participation of teachers and pupils
- Donations for children in Germany

Work of a student-quarrel-mediationteam.

In our school, great attention is paid to the fact that students know how to appreciate peace. Above all, it is important for us to help others. We have already helped Africa, Europe and Asia.

